

Remember all Practical exams up to Grade 3 are $99

Practical Exams 2011

First session will be from 15th August to the 15th September. Entries close 31st May.

Second session will be from the 1st to the 16th December, main centres only. Other centres available on request to the office. Entries close 7th October.

Theory Exams 2011

There will be a procedural change to the system of providing theory papers to teachers. The exact theory paper that a student sits will not be available however a sample of a similar paper will be available on-line from mid May.

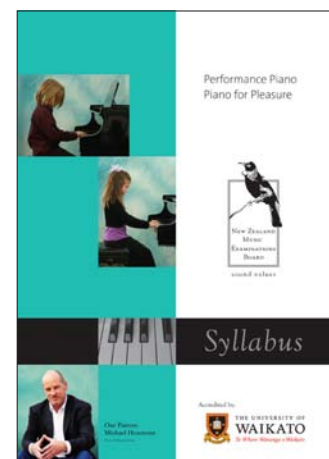

We are currently taking entries for May 2011 exams. Entries can be processed online at:
<http://www.nzmeb.org/Examinations/TheoryEntry>

Second session theory exams 29th October. Entries close 31st August.

Syllabus News:

There is a new format for printed syllabuses. Each instrumental Performance Syllabus is followed by the matching Pleasure Syllabus. They are separated on-line so that people can find them more easily.

The new look syllabuses have been printed for Performance Piano, Piano for Pleasure and Theory.

These are available to all teachers. Please send an email to office@nzmeb.org if you would like a copy. All our syllabuses are on-line and available to you at all times.

Preliminary Piano:

We have had two Canons written for NZMEB by New Zealand composer Michael Williams.

These are available as a free download from our website under the Syllabuses tab. http://www.nzmeb.org/download/Syllabuses/Michael\_Williams\_Canons.pdf

Entrants are permitted to bring these into the exam with them as they are copyright for use by NZMEB entrants.
